Summary of Program Requirements:

New students and students from a collaborating college or graduate school:
Complete all modules for Year One and Year Two. Participation in two (2) Breathworks is required.
Yearly Retreat for both years required. In order to receive ordination, all course material must be complete and all tuition due must be paid by the end of the second year.

Additional Fees
Room and Board for the yearly five-day retreat is charged at the then-current rates and is due upon check in. Breathwork fees depend on the instructor and the location, and are due upon check in. Transportation expenses and study materials are not included in tuition.

Refund Policy
Your $500 deposit is non-refundable. You are registering for a two-year program and tuition commitment. If you decide to leave the program during the first program year, then you are obligated to complete the payment schedule for that year.

For second year tuition, if you notify us of your decision to not continue the program by August 1 (BEFORE the commencement of the second year classes), then you may withdraw without any further financial obligation. Once the second year program has begun, your payments remain payable for the remainder of the year in accordance with your selected payment option.

We understand that circumstances may arise, which could make it logistically challenging for you to continue the program. Your holistic wellbeing is an integral part of this program, and therefore it is our policy for withdrawing students to meet with our Educational Program Director Susan Coleman, before exiting. Our policies are designed to clarify the commitment that you and the Ministerial Training Program have to each other.

By completing and signing this registration, I attest that I have read and understand the payment and refund policies and that the information provided herein is true and correct.
